No 7 Spring Term
23rd Feb 2010

Dear Parents

I hope you had a wonderful half term. The children all appear rested and ready to go.

Great news - we've found a fantastic teacher to look after Badger class while Helen Lancashire goes on her maternity leave. Gill Foster is known to the children as she has been providing any supply teaching that we need this school year. During the next few weeks, she will be working alongside Helen to get to know the children and their routines. Nearer the end of term, Badger parents will be invited to a little tea party to meet her. Fox parents will have the chance to meet her in the summer when all parents will be meeting their child's next teacher.

I always have to have a moan, so here goes! Can I please remind parents that nail polish is not part of the school uniform. Lovely as it is for them to copy their Mummies, it is not appropriate for school, so can you please ensure that nail polish is removed.

Thank you to those parents who have contributed to the new Head Teacher's characteristics. They have been heart warming and reflect that parents appreciate the friendly and caring approach that the school practices. I've left the box at the end of this letter in case any more of you would like to comment.

We have had some wonderful examples of you noticing school learning being taken home from our Junk Orchestra visit. Many of our Badger class went straight home and made their own 'junk instruments'. Parents have commented that the children learnt a lot from that particular event.

Best wishes
